

I'm worried that Sinclair Broadcasting is using its position as a media giant to promote partisan positions. A while back it wouldn't allow the program about American soldiers because it said it was anti-American. But now they're forcing stations to air an anti-Kerry show?

Please keep a close eye on Sinclair, and force them to promote balance in the media if they cannot do so for themselves.

Thank you,

Garrett Leque
Tacoma